THE BEACON

1963

Fisher Junior College
Boston, Massachusetts

To you we dedicate—a sign of honor and affection . . .

To You,

Who holds out her hand and says sincerely, "Come, I will help."

To You,

Who understands the student who needs your wisdom

To You,

Who has a warm smile that lights the corridors of Fisher

To You,

Who has served unselfishly and unceasingly

To You,

Who has attained the respect and love of the entire graduating class

We dedicate our yearbook, the 1963 Beacon, as a sign of honor and affection, to you, MRS. ALICE HURLEY.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This annual is a history of what you have accomplished at Fisher Junior College.

As each edition of this book comes into my hands at graduation time, I am touched and heartened by the hard work and achievement that each of you has shown. You have worked, possibly suffered and struggled, but you have proved your worth and THE BEACON testifies to your success.

The College is proud of this book and of you.

We will follow your subsequent career with the interest of parents, proud that we have been a part of your life and your preparation and your triumphs; and interested always in each of you as an individual, for while we remember you as a class, you are an individual and a personal friend. We have faith in you and faith in your future.

Sanford L. Fisher, B.S., Ed.M.
President

EDITORS' MESSAGE

To the Senior Class:

We, the editors of the Beacon, together with the Beacon staff, have worked sincerely and diligently to present to the Senior Class the 1963 Beacon. The yearbook, we hope, will serve as an everlasting memory of our life at Fisher. Although words and pictures can never express the true meaning of our college life, this book, we hope, will suffice as a remembrance of our teachers, classmates, extra-curricular activities, and social events which have played such an important role in these learning years.

Thank you for giving us an opportunity to serve you, the Class of 1963.

Very sincerely yours,
Phyllis Cohen

DORMITORIES

SARAH MORTIMER HALL

—Margaret Cairns, Mary Ann Childs, Miss Hollis, Dorm Mother; Peggy Howell, Jacquie Rowe, Joan Hassell, Joyce Rotenberg.

ANDREW HALL—Glorianne Perrault, Mrs. McKee, Dorm Mother; Mary Alice Parker, Dolores McGraw, Marge Sturm, Annette Polonsky.

Fisher Junior College has truly blessed its students with an opportunity, if need or financial ability is there, to live in dormitories not only equipped with a home-away-from home, but also with a mother-away-from mother. These "temporary" homes are equipped with bedrooms, living rooms, and lounges. Each room has its own special purpose, and each girl contributes to the warmth and togetherness that is significant of a real home. By living together, the girls in each dormitory learn to grow not only scholastically, but also socially. They come in contact with girls from all over the United States and other foreign countries, including Japan and Iran. With these contacts, the girls enjoy the experience of meeting other students of various races, colors, and creeds, and also the experience of living and learning with all types of people. One girl's problem becomes every girl's problem and advice is always there to be rejected or accepted. The warmth, sincerity, and concern of each girl for her fellow dormitory girls is insurpassable.

FLORENCE HALL—

Standing: Ruth McCaughey, Social Chairman; Patricia Splaine, Treasurer; Mrs. Hazel Miller, Dorm Mother. Seated: Betty Magoon, Secretary; Janice Sablak, President. Absent: Madelyn Bryant.

DORM 104—Dottie Middleton, Mrs. Richwagon, Dorm Mother; Joan Kandarian, Gail Drury, Carol Haynes.

There are seven dormitories and each has its own activities, some annual and some extemporaneous, depending on the wishes of the majority. The junior initiation by the seniors always proves to be very exciting for the initiators, but very frightening for the initiated. Nevertheless, the occasion is fulfilled for all. During the wonderful and holy season of Christmas, the dormitory girls not only plan parties for themselves, but also for those who are less fortunate. Sarah Mortimer Hall gave their party at the Home for the Aged, Myron Hall for the children of the Juvenile Court, Andrew Hall for the children of Morgan Memorial, and Edmund Hall for the children of the Salvation Army. The girls also celebrated Halloween with parties full of dancing and laughter. It was even said that the "spooky spirit" seemed to haunt Florence Hall during that time.

EDMUND HALL—

Linda Spencer, Mrs. Smith, Dorm Mother; Sue Pierce, Shirley Jackson, Elaine Biefeld, Carolyn Carlson, Linda Crocker, Carol Tougher.

MYRON HALL—Miss McNevin, Dorm Mother; Linda Crocker, Jean Gnospelius, Anne Knowles, Mary Lou Barger, Dina Hamilton.

FLORENCE HALL—Patricia Rice, Sheila Stone, Janice Ewen, Marsha Galper, Carol Adams.

CARTY HALL—Sandra Melanson, Ardis Miller, Pam Brown.

CARTY HALL—Pat Couto, Sue Littlefield.

CARTY HALL—Cam Bracy, Shirley Pooler, Ellen McDonough.

EDMUND HALL—Roberta Kropp, Judy Polonsky, Joyce Rubin, Cathy Martin, Linda Pratt, Roberta Ross.

FLORENCE HALL—Janet Detweiler, Nan Carmolli, Jill Feyler, Priscilla Patterson, Janet Duston, Pamela Hill.

EDMUND HALL—Kathy Iszlai, Nancy Ash, Diane Sibolkin, Elaine Weisman, Penny Kaler, Jeanne Levesque.

FLORENCE HALL—Laureen Pera, Merrie Ellis, Mary O'Brien, Rosanne Thibault, Barbara Moses.

SARAH MORTIMER HALL
—Jane Powell, Elaine Lizza,
Marcia Moody, Lois Horvitz,
Julie Benkavitch, Carol Lee
Saul.

CARTY HALL—Nancy Bal-
lou, JoAnne Yablonski, Lee
Howker, Linda Aaltonen.

ANDREW HALL—
Karen Smith, Eva Steiner, Susan Astle, Janice Wright.

Each dormitory has its own special night "out on the town," so to speak. Edmund Hall and Carty Hall enjoyed a Chinese dinner; Florence Hall, dinner at the Sheraton Plaza; and Sarah Mortimer Hall, dinner at Steubins. And of course, the girls will never forget their spring outings and beach parties.

No party seems "right" unless there is "twisting" and folk singing. Realizing this, the dormitory girls planned their own parties complete with dates, dancing, eating, and near-by college folk-singing groups. Other types of parties were given such as farewell parties for marriage-bound girls and bon voyage parties for European-bound girls.

ANDREW HALL—
Linda Mason, Julianna Remkus, Andrea Yates, Susan Can-natta.

SARAH MORTIMER HALL
—Patricia Ek, Myra Gershenson, Janice Columbus, Nancy McLaughlin, Barbi Landry, Vicki Walentuck.

EDMUND HALL—Janet Yardley, Cindy Hatch, Susan Hitchcock, Linda Hill, Marcia Skovron.

DORM 104—Pam Chase, Fatima Aram, Marsha Mader, Carole Oliva.

Each dormitory has its own special memories and feelings of leaving. Edmund Hall is grateful to their house mother, Mrs. Smith, whom they consider "tops." Florence Hall will never forget the understanding of their house mother, Mrs. Miller. Carty Hall realized that no activity could have been successfully planned without Mrs. Willock. Sarah Mortimer Hall felt that they owed many of their memories to Miss Hollis. Myron Hall gave thanks to Miss McNevin, "a good sport." Andrew Hall expressed their gratefulness to Mrs. McKee for her guidance and companionship. We leave the memories of the newest Fisher Dormitory for last. This new dormitory known as "104" is just beginning to serve its girls, and the girls have expressed a love for their beautiful home and their house mother, Miss Richwagon.

And so the dormitory girls leave their home-away-from home and return to their own homes with family and neighborhood friends, but they never really leave behind their college and dormitory life at Fisher Junior College.

ANDREW HALL—
Barbara Judkins, Fanny Duhl, Ginny Wedge, Kris Keeler, Kay Daly.

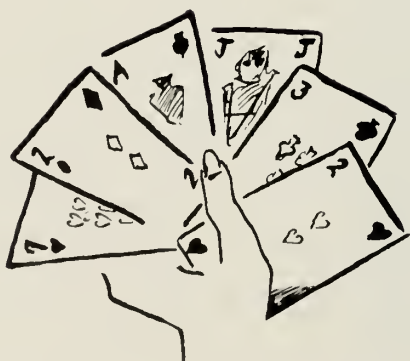

CARTY HALL—Carol Widrow, Mary Ann Friel, Dolores Kinkaid, Betsy Elliott.

MYRON HALL—Donna Rice, Helen Kaye, Pat Dickerman, Judy Scanlan.

SARAH MORTIMER HALL—Sylvia Lazaro, Ginny Greenlee, Linda Darling, Claire Jones, Judy Pratt.

FLORENCE HALL—Suzanne Moors, Ildze Sillers, Marie Hirniak, Emery Gould, Marilyn LaChapelle.

MYRON HALL—Lynne Phelps, Chris Anderson, Donna Cussinori, Nancy Cooper.

SARAH MORTIMER HALL—Alice Marmelstein, Laurajean Long, Lana Steinberg, Becca Murphy, Walda O'Brien, Arleen Olsen.

DORM 104—Lee Kimball, Gale Harland, Minoo Aram, JoAnne Lubinski.

CARTY HALL—Kathi Barosi, Joan Lancaster, Vicki Kronenfeld.

MYRON HALL—Patty Kahan, Michele Kahan, Carolyn DuBois, Linda Campbell, Linda Currie.

DORM 104—Linda Boyar, Jane Ayers, Deverie Sesser, Marilyn Hoar.

DORM 104—Joan Potter, Mary Jean Adams, Janet Camp.

BEACON STAFF

With the able leadership of the Co-Editors in Chief, and with the guidance of Miss Mele, yearbook advisor, the staff has worked hard to make this yearbook a glowing reminder to both the students and the faculty of our past two years at Fisher.

The yearbook is actually a synopsis of all the events, school news, and features of our college life. Fisher is not to be forgotten, and this yearbook is a reminder to all of us.

CHARLES VIEWER

One of the nicest traditions at Fisher Junior College is the school newspaper, THE CHARLES VIEWER.

All at Fisher know when this publication is being distributed because all over the school expressions of concentration or amusement are observed on the faces of those reading the many interesting short stories, poems, or gossip articles.

Miss Ellen Foti heads the staff as Editor-in-Chief under the guidance of Mrs. Dorothy Kelly, faculty advisor.

The paper's main purpose is to publish the literary talents of the students at Fisher, some of whom show definite signs of writing ability. Because the paper is small and is published only three or four times a year, current events are almost entirely eliminated. But, thanks to the members, the latest news of the clubs and dorms is always included, much to the delight of the students. Also of interest to both students and faculty are the articles written by our foreign students concerning their reactions to their college life at Fisher.

An able and willing staff and a capable chief assure us that the fine reputation of the paper will always be maintained.

COLLEGIATE COUNCIL FOR UNITED NATIONS

The Collegiate Council for the United Nations is a national organization designed for the purpose of studying and supporting the United Nations. It strives to fulfill these goals by first, making each campus group a center for studying and understanding the United Nations; and second, by providing a place for the informed students to voice their opinions concerning the United Nations.

At Fisher, the C.C.U.N. takes steps to fulfill these goals by presenting programs on world affairs in connection with the United Nations. The girls had several speakers during the year, among them, Mr. William Filene speaking on Communism, and two speakers from Africa who gave a talk on their homeland. In October, the C.C.U.N. sponsored U.N. Day by presenting a film relating the purposes and the functions of the United Nations.

Later in the year, six girls were chosen on the basis of special tests to attend the Mid-Atlantic Model General Assembly in Washington D.C. and the local Model General Assembly at Boston University.

Through the C.C.U.N., the girls can gain a better understanding of the United Nations, how it affects their lives, and how they can help to support it.

DRAMA CLUB

The Drama Club opened another successful year under the direction of Mr. Hansen, advisor.

The members of the club enjoyed a trip to Northeastern University to attend the play THE SKIN OF OUR TEETH. During the course of the year the club also enjoyed a makeup demonstration, a film on Play Production, and a most interesting tour of the Loew Theater.

The highlight of the spring season was the club's annual production. Months of practice were rewarded in a professional performance.

We hope that the Drama Club of future years will be as much fun and as much of a success as this year's drama club.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Siagel, gave all girls with an interest in music a chance to shine. The Glee Club sang at many of the assemblies; and their selections, including show tunes, popular hits, and old favorites, were enjoyed by all.

During the spring, the girls represented Fisher at the "Pops." On stage and accompanied by the Symphony Orchestra, the Fisher Glee Club sang forth in their best performance of the year. What a credit to Fisher and what a fond memory of another successful year.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Fisher Newman Club is a member of the National Federation of Newman Clubs. Newman Clubs are formed in almost all of the non-Catholic colleges for the purpose of bringing Catholic men and women together to meet other members of the Catholic Faith.

The first monthly meeting was a "coke meet" for new junior and senior members to become acquainted with the club and its members. After the first meeting, the club sponsored a cake sale to raise money for their Washington trip in March. They also sponsored a book sale to raise money for Asian students and made plans for a special service for a needy family. Plans for a Communion breakfast in May were made and carried out.

Father Vartzilis gave talks on the Mass and conducted question and answer periods.

Under the guidance of Miss Elaine Chizook, faculty advisor, the club is growing and widening its scope to become one of Fisher's assets.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Student Christian Movement of New England is the mother organization of the Fisher Junior College Student Christian Association. The association at Fisher has followed the dedication of the New England movement—"A fellowship of student and faculty groups committed to the will of God in building new individuals and a new society according to the growing insights and faith of the cooperating Christian groups"—by greatly enriching the lives of its members.

The S.C.A., while trying to help others, helped fill a Thanksgiving basket for the Home for Little Wanderers and presented a film produced by the Home.

The Student Christian Association, in connection with the other religious groups, has participated in the weekly meditation services. Under the leadership of Mrs. Cornell, faculty advisor, the Student Christian Association hopes to continue to build the club and the characters of its individual members.

TALMUDIMS

This is the third year of the Talmudims at Fisher. The purpose of the club is to create a better understanding of Judaism and to help in furthering closer ties with other religious groups.

In November, the Talmudims sponsored a talk given by Mr. Paul Fink, who spoke on "Young People in a Young Country." After the lecture, there was a general discussion period in which the girls questioned Mr. Fink on conditions in Israel. Each month the Talmudims held a worship service; and in December, they combined with the other two religious groups in an inter-faith service.

In April the Talmudims re-created a Passover service in honor of the Jewish holiday, Passover. At the end of the year, the girls went out for a "night out with the girls" to the movies and to dinner.

The Talmudims have created a religious club combined with a social life and truly upholds Fisher tradition.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Every member of the student body belongs to the Student Government Association; but the power to run this government is delegated to the elected Student Council and the presidents of all clubs and organizations. The S.G.A. acts as a bridge between the administration, the faculty, and the student body to promote cooperation and understanding, to represent the interests of the students, and to assist in the observance of the traditions of the college.

The S.G.A. is in charge of many of the social activities at Fisher. It sponsored the annual Fisher Mixer, conducted elections for the junior S.G.A. council members and for class officers, published the annual Christmas address book, sponsored the annual Christmas party, and served at the Faculty and Administration Luncheon.

The Student Government Association is the medium through which the students, the faculty, and the administration can establish a happier, more rewarding relationship.

COMMUTERS' CLUB

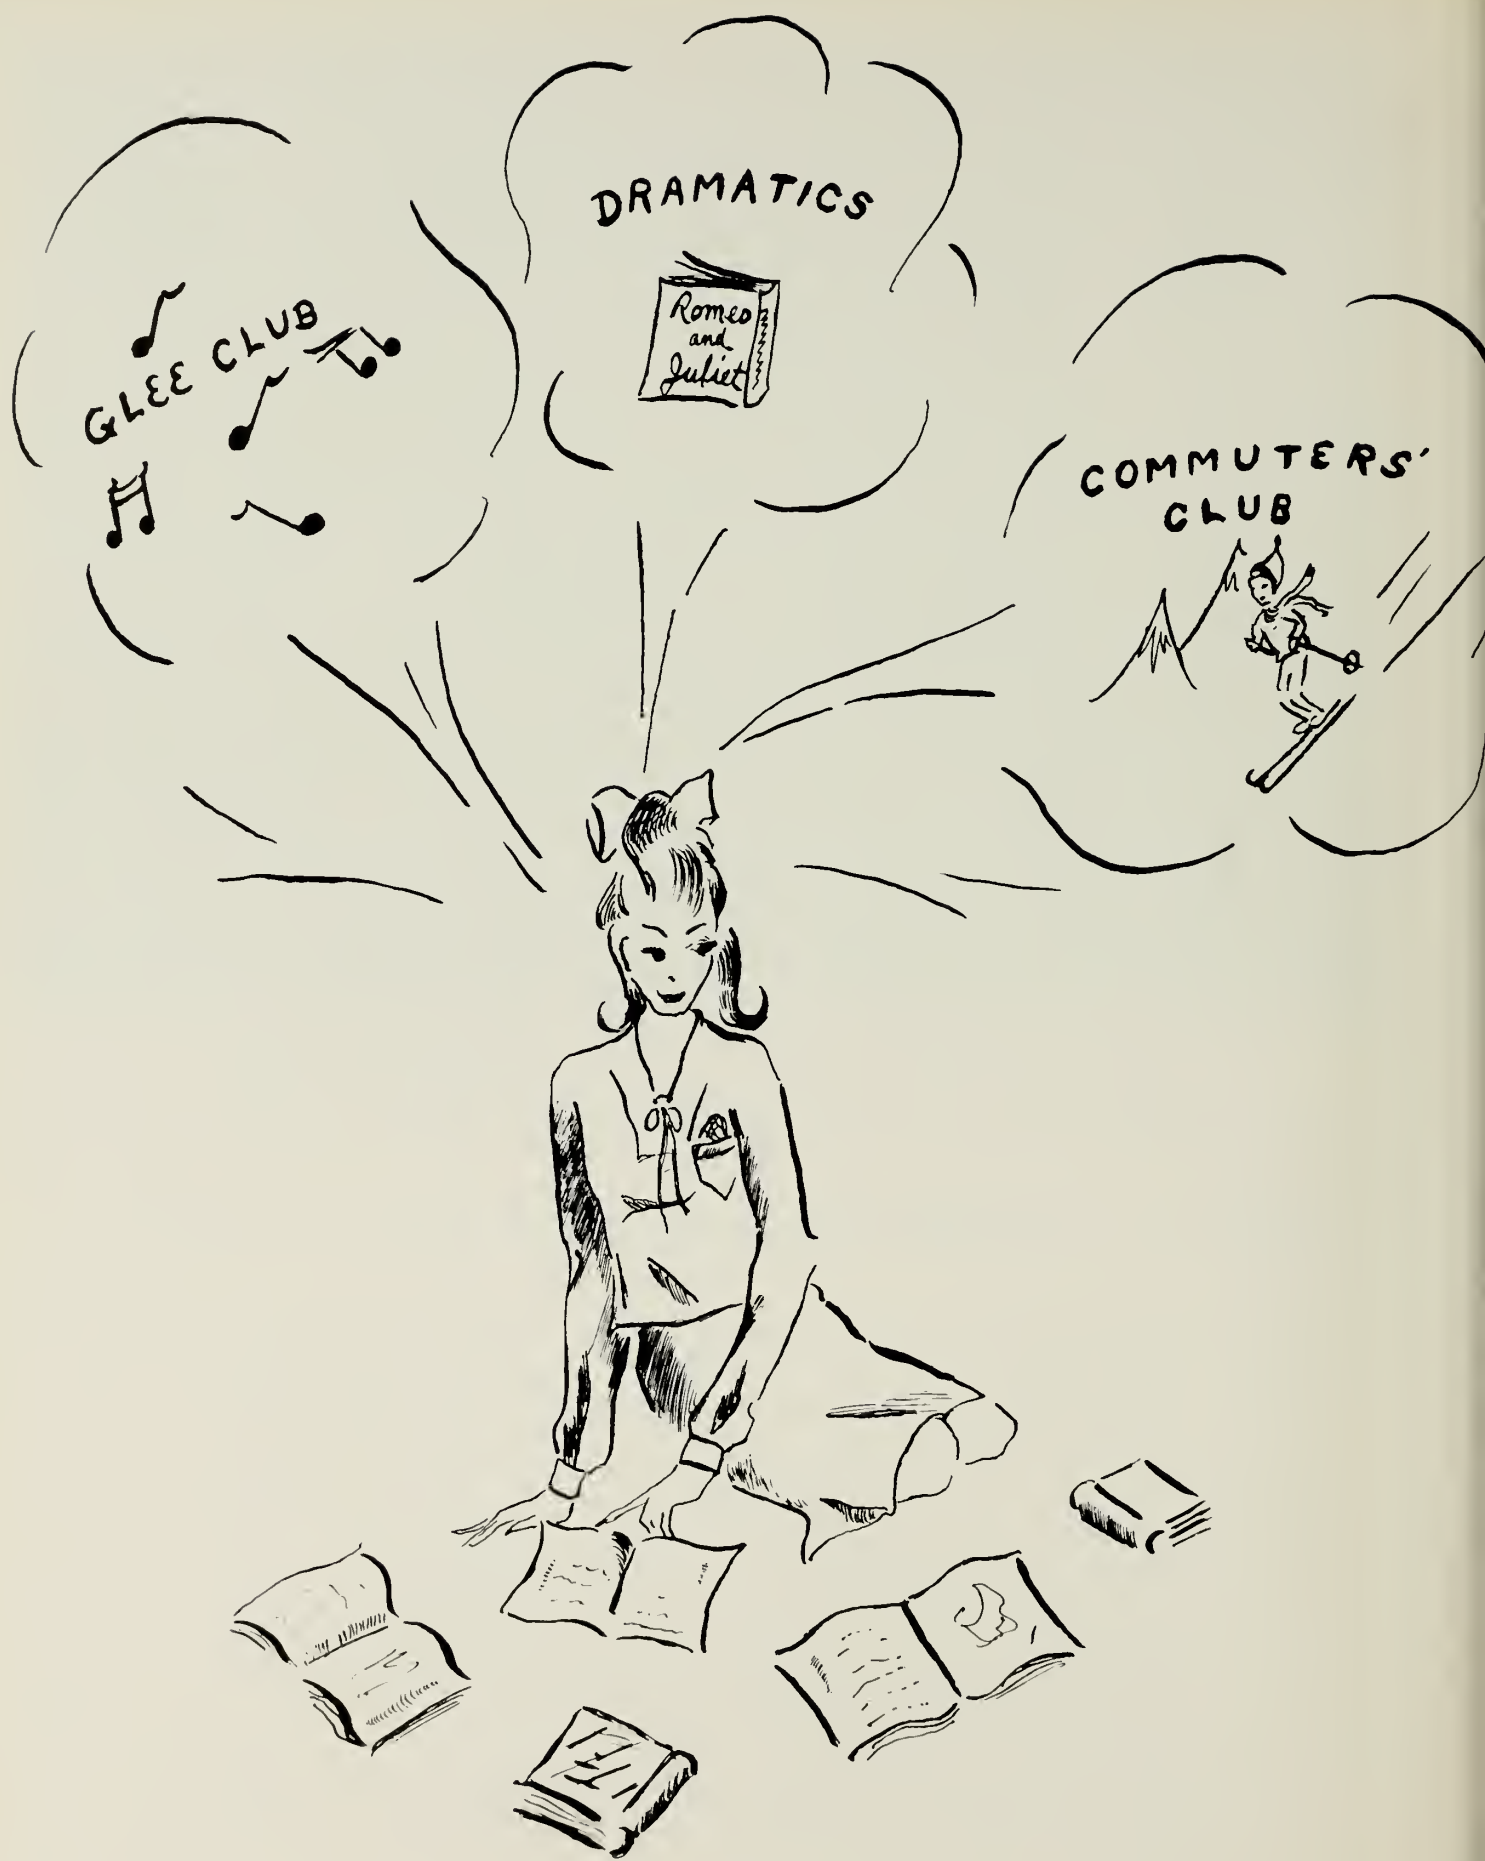

The Commuters' Club enables the commuting students to become better acquainted with one another by providing them with entertainment and social activities. In addition, it strives to help other people by sponsoring worth-while projects.

This year the club has more than fulfilled its purpose. In December, the club engaged in a project to help a needy family enjoy a wonderful Christmas; and in the spring, the Club presented a worthy junior commuter with a $100 scholarship on the basis of good scholastic rating.

There were a number of social activities provided for the girls. In January, the girls attended a thrilling hockey game. Ed Barry, golf professional at the Pine Meadows Country Club in Lexington, taught all interested girls the essentials of golf. The annual golf tournament was held at the Country Club followed by a dinner and the presentation of awards.

March brought the annual ski trip, and all the joys of the winter season were enjoyed in three wonderful days.

Just as the dormitories provide a place for the resident girls to form lasting friendships, the Commuters' Club gives the commuting girls the same opportunity.

Evets

It's G O O D!!!!

Traditionally, the first event of each school year was the Get-Acquainted Outing, which was held at Cedar Hill, in Waltham. Coming as it did in the first week of classes, the picnic afforded a good opportunity for the Juniors to meet one another, for the Senior sisters to get acquainted with their little sisters and help them with any questions or problems they might have, and for everyone to have an afternoon of fun and relaxation.

Leaving Fisher shortly after noon, we arrived at Cedar Hill in no time. The afternoon was filled with games of softball, volleyball, hiking, and the limbo.

After much energy had been expended, a giant cook-out was held, where everything from hot dogs to chocolate bars was consumed.

Square dancing lessons were held in the hall after eating. Soon after, we boarded the buses to return to school, ready to settle down to the more serious aspects of college life.

Hup, Two, Three, Four

Batter up!!!

Come And Get It

Keep It Up!

Keep Smiling.

With the music of the Aeolian Trio in the background, we, as Juniors, enjoyed our first social function at Fisher—The President's Tea.

The purpose of this tea, held each year, is to acquaint the new students with the faculty, the school, and, most important, with each other.

After receiving a name card, each girl was individually introduced to Mr. Sanford Fisher in his office and then proceeded to the ballroom to enjoy cakes and cookies of every variety and to meet and talk with her teachers.

The President's Tea served to draw each girl more closely into the Fisher family and to feel at home—certainly a wonderful way to start a college career.

Let's Be Sociable.

How Do You Do?

Our Junior Mother and Daughter Tea, which was held in late May in the lounge of 108 and in the President's office at 118 Beacon, proved to be one of our most successful undertakings. Coming at such a time, the tea was a temporary relief from studying and also an afternoon of carefree gaiety before the drudgery of final examinations.

This event provided the mothers with an opportunity to meet and chat informally with the faculty, to see the school buildings, particularly 108 Beacon, which was completed in our Junior year, and to visit the dormitories which are their daughters' "homes away from home."

The tea, held in a warm and friendly manner, was a happy event for the students and assured the mothers that their daughters were receiving an education in a very pleasant atmosphere.

All Little Goodies Sitting In A Row.

Ruff—Ruff.

Boys, boys, boys—lots of them came to the annual Get-Acquainted Dance sponsored by the Student Government Association. The dance was held at the Y.W.C.A. and was really a success both socially and financially.

For the first time, the hall was decorated for this dance. The decorations consisted of streamers and enormous bunches of balloons scattered throughout the entire room. Balloon faces—girls with red hair and men with bowties—were the decorations on the wall.

During intermission everyone was entertained by a singing group from the Harvard Hasty Pudding Club. This group was called the Krokodiles, and they presented a series of folk songs and university songs.

Of course the main attraction at this dance was boys—and they were boys from Harvard, M.I.T., B.U., B.C., Northeastern, and various other colleges in the area. It really was a success, for there were three boys to each girl.

A night to remember.

Perhaps the most successful social event of our Junior year was the Sweetheart Dance, which was held on February 9, 1962, at the Parker House Roof. To the music of Jerry Davis and his band, we danced, while snow swirled outside, contributing an eerie background to the setting of the dance.

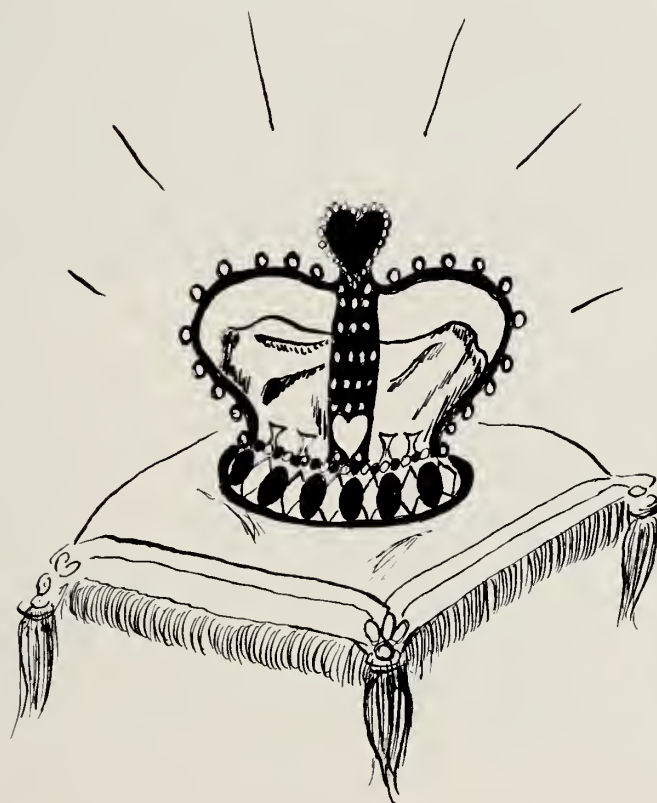

A snowball dance, the "twist," and a grand march preceded the highlight of the evening, which was the crowning of Miss Suzanne Moors as the Sweetheart Queen.

Dancing was enjoyed until the magic hour of midnight, when "Goodnight Ladies" signalled the end of a most enjoyable evening.

A sweetheart's sweetheart.

It is every young girl's dream to go to Europe, and for a fortunate group of girls their wish came true while they were students at Fisher. In both our Junior and Senior years, the College sponsored a Spring Tour of five European countries.

Luceren, Switzerland; Amsterdam, Holland; and Heidelberg, Germany were three of the stops on the tour. Perhaps the most interesting places in the tour were London, England and Paris, France. In London, the girls were thrilled by the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace, the straight, tall Bobbies, who rarely speak, and the many local pubs.

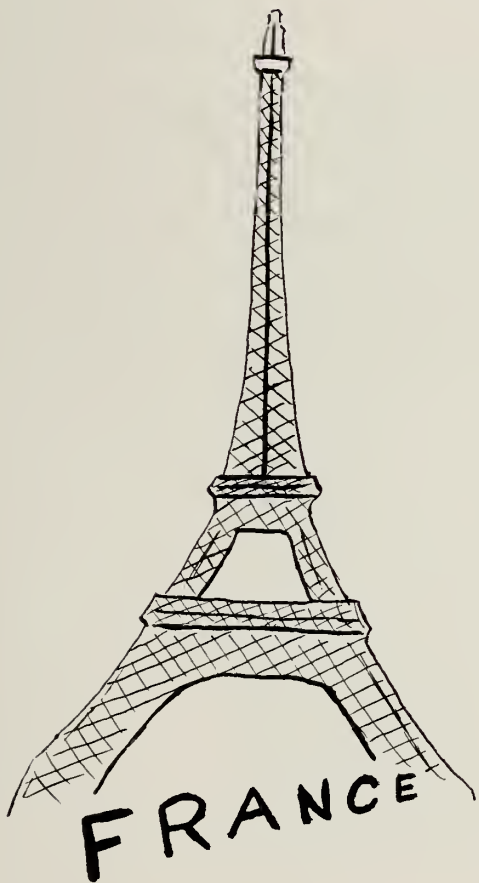

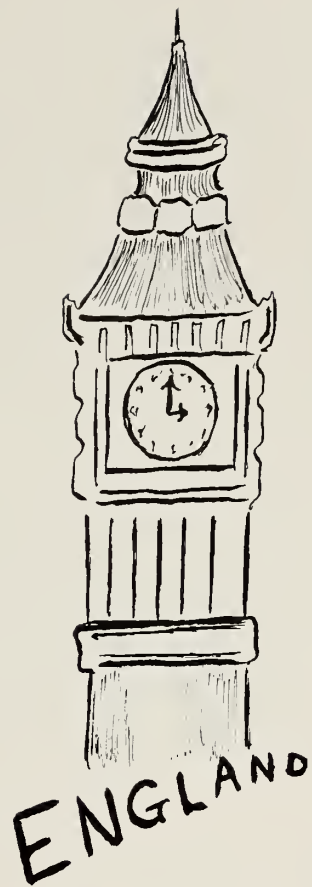

Off we go . . .

Paris, the mecca of fashion, was exciting with its always interesting Eiffel Tower, Champs Elysees, and the sidewalk cafes.

With visions of German beer, Dutch tulips, London smog, and Parisian clothes whirling in their heads, the girls were forced to return, after their brief sojourn in Europe, to the stark reality of life and studying. But those two weeks of fascination will always remain a very happy memory.

A long way from home.

How's the weather up there?

A Work of Art!

A Dutch Treat!

All the world's a stage . . .

Each year, the Drama Club presents a play for the benefit of the entire student body, parents, and friends. Under the astute direction of Mr. Laurence Hansen, the club consistently deserves credit for their fine performances.

In the Spring of our Junior year, the Drama Club staged a three-act play, entitled "Ladies in Retirement." A suspenseful murder mystery, the play was very well received by the audience. The play was presented on three consecutive nights in the ballroom of the school and was acted on a stage in the center of the room, thus allowing it to be viewed from all four sides.

Members of our class who participated in the play, Kristin Keeler, and Claudette Prefontaine, gave excellent performances, and they deserved credit for the many hours they dedicated to the production.

"Ladies in Retirement" certainly was an excellent effort by the Drama Club and proved to be extremely entertaining to all of us.

Let Me See!!!!!!

A Diabetes Fair was held on November 19 by the senior Medicals. Each group of approximately five girls chose a particular phase of diabetes and presented posters and model illustrations. All of the projects were interesting and even taught Mrs. Leary some things she had not known. Some of the projects were so well done that they were presented at a conference of the American Diabetes Association; and Fisher Junior College Medicals were the subject of an article in the American Diabetes Association Newsletter that is sent to subscribers interested in the disease.

Each project was attractive and informative; but the star of the show was "Cindy," a puppy, connected with one of the projects. Cindy won the hearts of everyone with her brown eyes and jaunty red bow.

On the night of November 19, parents and friends of the Medicals were invited to see the projects. After coffee and dessert, everyone was privileged to listen to an informative speech by a Doctor.

THE ALMA MATER

Hail to you, our Alma Mater
Let our voices join in praise
To the school whose inspiration
Will direct us all our days.
As we stand before Life's portal
You have given us a key
To unlock the great world before us;
And to you we'll loyal be.

When the moment comes for parting
And we bid these halls good-bye
We will take with us forever
Thoughts of you that never die.
Alma Mater, as we leave you
We hold bright in memory
Our days at the college we cherish.
In our hearts you'll ever be.

CLASS WILL

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT FISHER JUNIOR COLLEGE

We, the members of the Class of 1963 of Fisher Junior College, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make our last will and testament, giving and bequeathing the following:

To Mr. Sanford Fisher, we bequeath the hope that some day Beacon Street will become Fisher Street . . . To Mr. Myron Fisher, a two-way wrist radio for quick contact . . . To Mr. Albert Fisher, a calendar with two Wednesdays in each week . . . To Mr. Carty, a visit from Michael Anthony . . . To Miss MacDonald, a year of no complaints . . . The art of being a non-conformist or why many perceptive yearbook staffs prefer a very distinguished publishing house

Retaining one's individuality is not easy in these days of mass production and standardization. This is especially true of yearbook publishing, in which mass production methods have the tendency to force one to buy just what the other fellow buys.

Making of soap or soup or salad dressing by mass methods is one thing. But it is quite another to attempt to produce a creative yearbook by trying to squeeze it into some pre-conceived mold. It just can't be done that way.

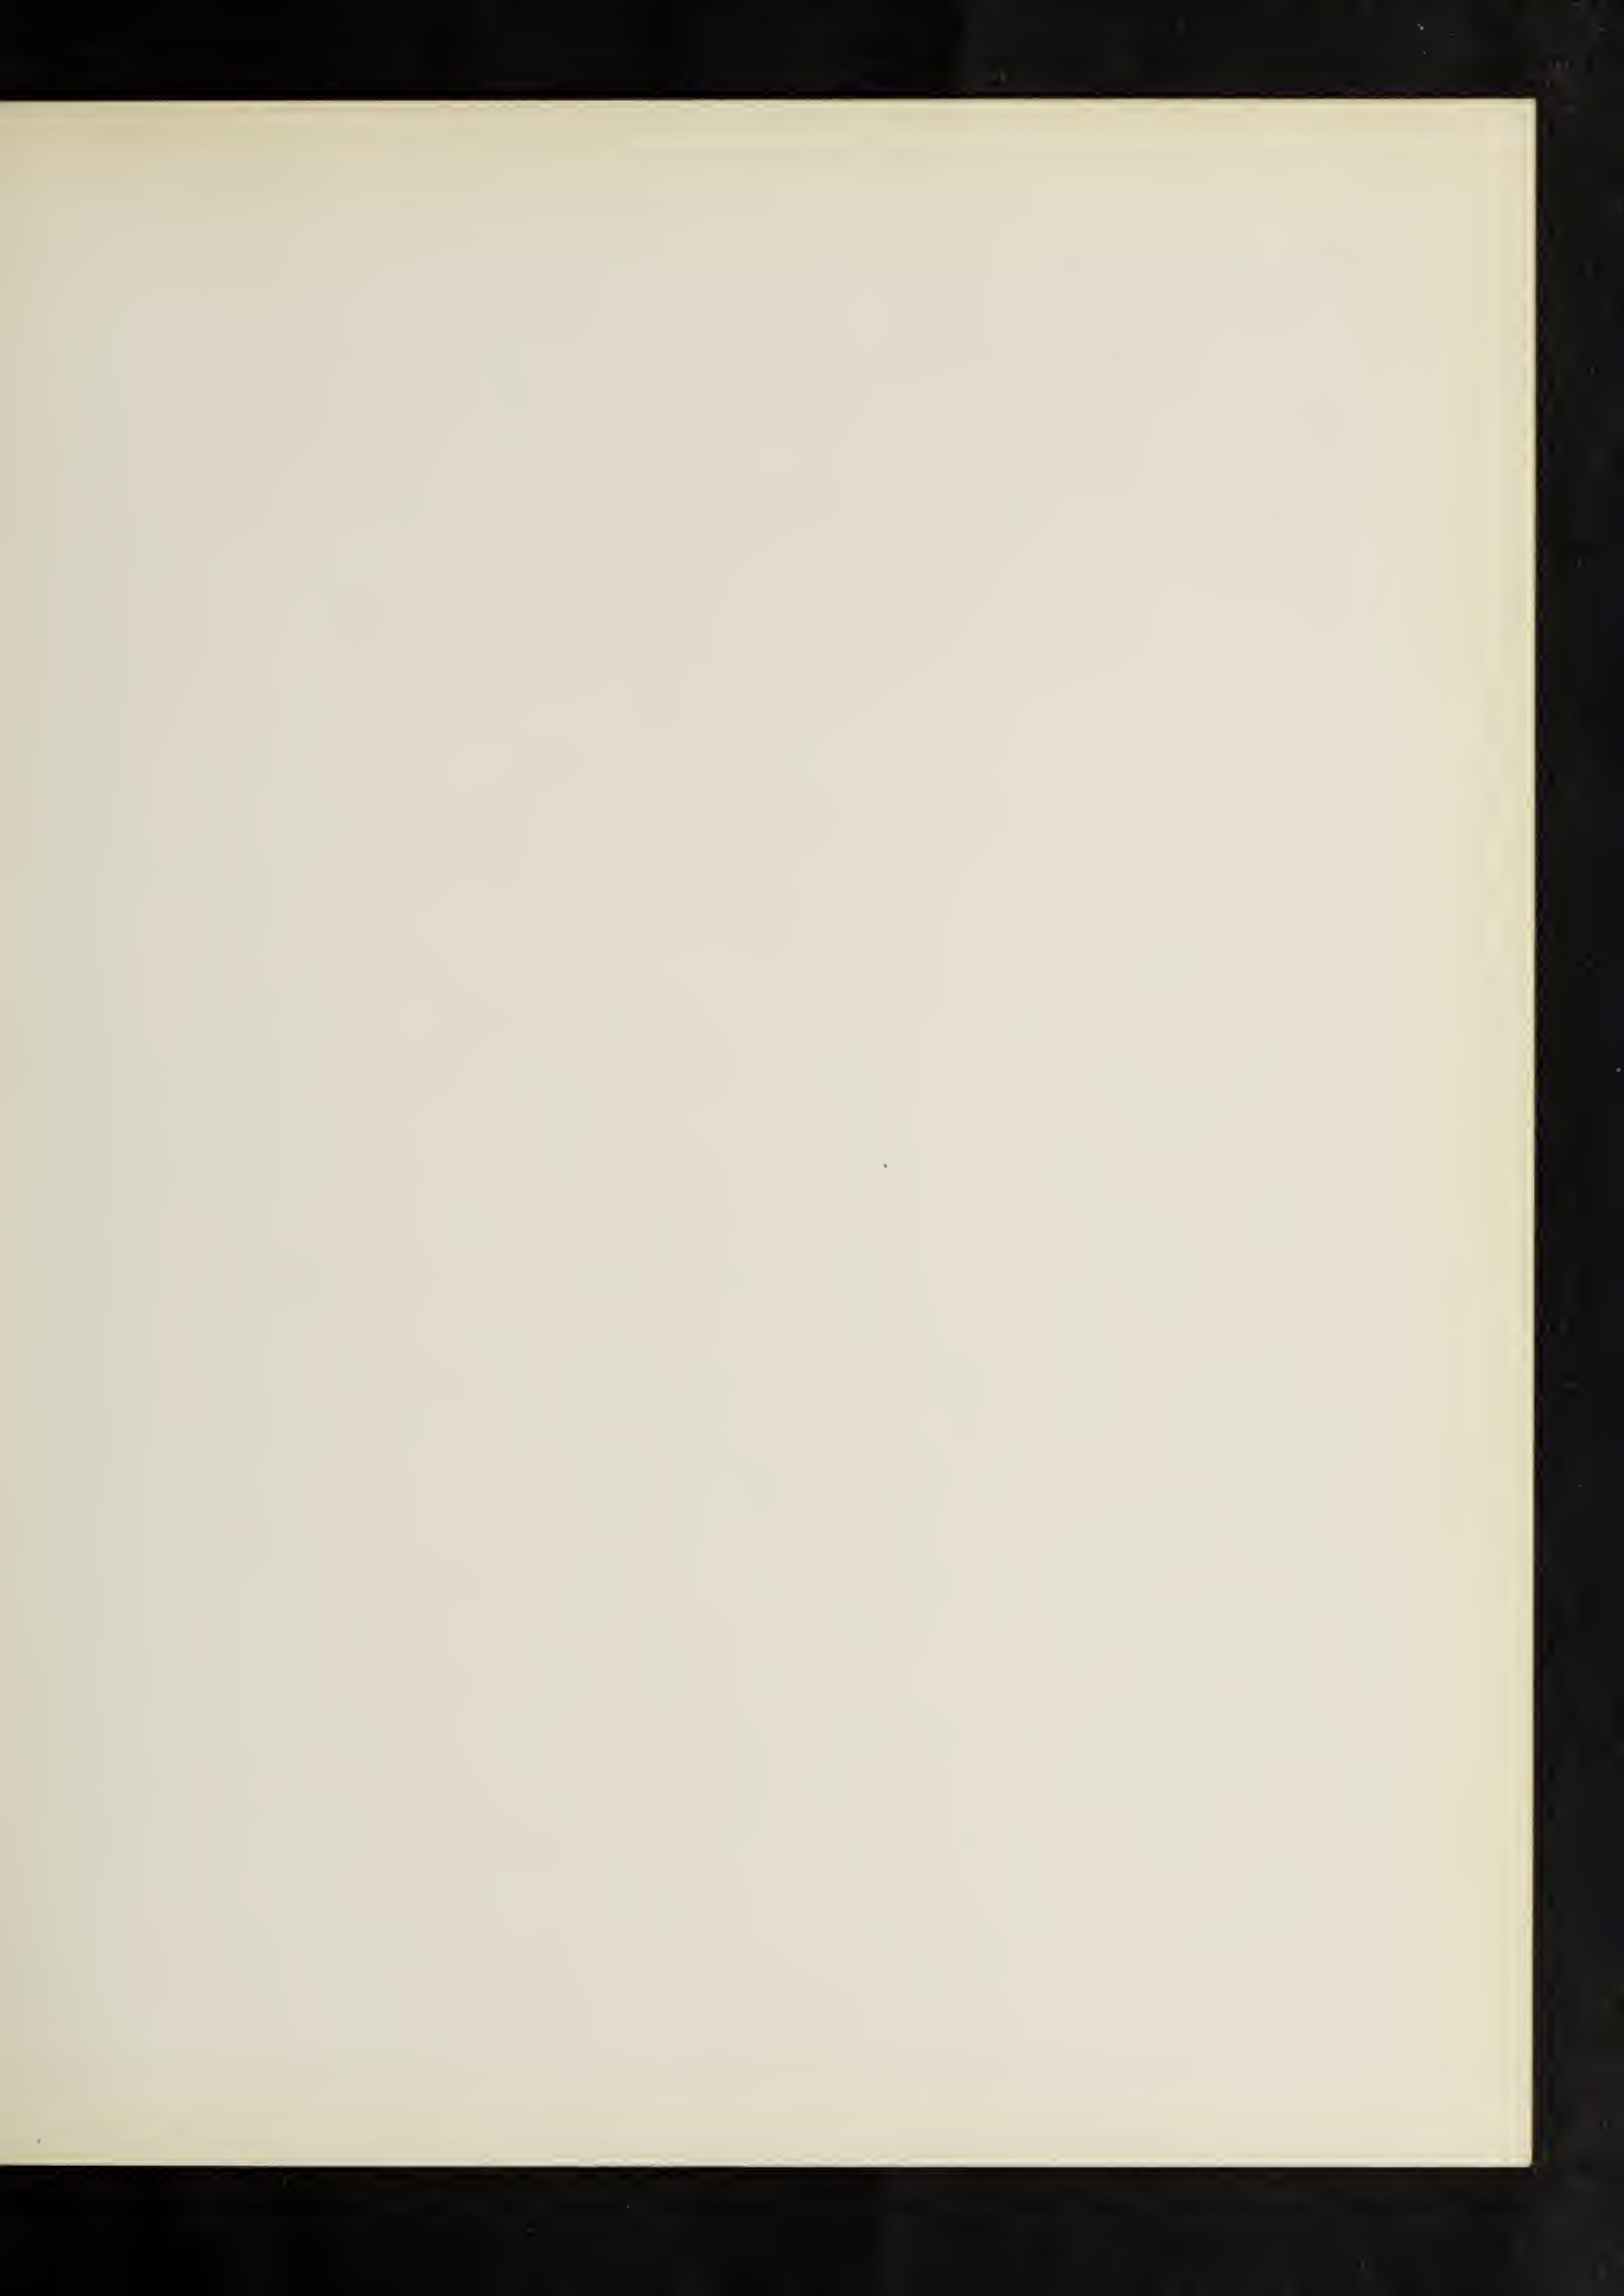

The Wm. J. Keller firm brings together highly trained craftsmen, the very finest papers and ink of superlative quality. Add to these a unique service plan built around the individual school, and, finally, production by the Velvatone process, which Keller perfected especially for the printing of yearbooks, and you have a truly distinguished performance. And a yearbook with singular character and individuality . . . we call it "THE LOOK OF THE BOOK."

The yearbook you are presently leafing through is the product of the Keller custom program. If you would care to see other examples of "THE LOOK OF THE BOOK" as produced by Wm. J. Keller, get in touch with us now.
